Solution:

When user types a message, Teams finds spelling mistakes and underlines them in red when spellcheck is enabled. This article shows a guide on how to enable or disable this feature in Microsoft Teams.

Details:

1. In Teams, advise the user to click on profile icon on the top-right and to select Manage Account.
2. In the Settings window, ask them to click on General.
3. Under the Language section, user needs to check or uncheck the Enable spell check option and click on Save and restart.
