Solution:

Large Gallery view lets user see up to 49 video feeds at once. Ten or more attendees must be sharing their video for Large Gallery view to be available. This article shows a guide on how user can switch to large gallery view in a Teams meeting.

Details:

While in a Teams meeting, user needs to click on the More options icon then select Large gallery.

Note: If the Large gallery option is grayed out, that means less than 10 video feeds are active.

2. The meeting window changes to show more video feeds, up to 49 feeds.
